

Local Minister Key Speaker at Denver Bible Lectureship Series This Week

Dr. Warren S. Jones, minister of the Redondo Beach Church of Christ, 6122 Pacific Coast Highway, is the key speaker at the six-day Bible Lectureship Series now in progress in Denver, Colorado. Presented each Spring and sponsored by the many Churches of Christ in the Denver area, the "Rocky Mountain Lectureship," as it has become known, draws speakers from throughout the United States. "The Religion Worth Having" has been chosen as the theme of the series this year.

WARREN JONES

Dr. Jones, speaking each evening, has selected a series of five topics: "The Victorious Faith," "The New Commandant," "As I Have Loved You," "The Spirit-Filled Life," "Expanding Our Spiritual Horizons," and "The Great Healing and Redemptive Fellowship."

Jones, who is also Head of the Department of Speech at Pepperdine College, has served the Redondo Beach Church of Christ since September of last year. The local church has shown growth in every aspect of its work, having set records in the attendance and contributions in the last few weeks. Plans are under way for a community Vacation Bible School in the Summer and a Lectureship in the Fall.

Dr. Jones, a native of Virginia, where he acquired his primary education, is a graduate of David Lipscomb College and received his doctorate from Wayne State University in Michigan. He has served as a minister in Tennessee, Indiana, and Michigan, as well as, Bakersfield, California, and Southwest Los Angeles.
